

K-Love serves an important part of my spiritual and emotional needs. I suffer from depression and it is very important to always keep my mood up. I obtain it from listening to K-Love radio who always have encouraging songs. I believe lots of other American people who are under depression. One way that they can be helped is through encouraging songs throughout the day and night. There is no other broadcaster than can replace K-Love. Please let K-Love on the air. Thank you.
